Today, the Notorious RBG turns 87. We honor her legacy and want her around much longer. If you want to protect her and all of our elders, stay at home as much as you can, and when you can't, maintain strict handwashing and a 6-foot distance. Initial indications show you can spread COVID-19 even without having symptoms. Whether or not you consider yourself high risk, RBG is one of the many people we love in our community who unquestionably is. Do it for her!

In 2018, Ginsberg accidentally broke her ribs. The incident tugged at the hearts of the American people, and Saturday Night Live ("SNL") created a special rap to cheer her up.

Her status in American

When the history books were written, and the enormous from that will be about what she did as a very young lawyer.

After Her Death

September 18th

In her oral dissent to the Supreme Court's majority opinion invalidating a key provision of the Voting Rights Act, RBG quoted a familiar MLK, but added her own coda. "The arc of the universe is long, but it bends toward justice," but only "if there is a steadfast commitment to see the task through to completion."

RBG spent her life pushing to bend the arc.
It is now upon all of us.
May her memory be a blessing, and a revolution.

If this feels personal, that's because it is. Ruth Bader Ginsburg was a personal hero for me and for millions of other women. The most fitting tribute to her is to stop Donald Trump and Senate Republicans from stealing her Supreme Court seat.

Elizabeth Warren on How to Honor RBG's Legacy -- and the Dangers of C...
As hearings begin on Amy Coney Barrett's nomination, Sen. Elizabeth Warren reflects on what we have to lose if Republicans get their way.
